Limitations on membership

7. The Board of Directors shall ensure that at all times the number of Corporate Members in membership of the Credit Union does not exceed 10% (or such other amount as prescribed by law) of the total number of members of the Credit Union. If the number of Corporate Members should exceed the limit prescribed at any time then the Board of Directors shall take all steps to reduce the number below the limit prescribed by expelling from membership those Corporate Members determined by the Board of Directors using a policy and procedure determined by the Board. In determining the policy for the expulsion of Corporate Members the Board of Directors will conduct an assessment of the impact to the Credit Union of expelling any particular Corporate Member.

Joint Accounts

8. Joint accounts are not permitted.

Non-qualifying Members

9. If a Member changes role which is out with the common bond and does not qualify that member shall become, and shall be referred to in these Rules as, a Non-Qualifying Member. A Non-Qualifying Member may retain their membership and voting rights in the Credit Union and continue to acquire Shares and to receive loans subject to legislation and the provisions of these Rules.

Juvenile Depositors

10. Juvenile Depositors are account holders who are under the age of 16. They must be related to an existing member that satisfy the Common Bond requirements, as per Rule 6, however, they are not Members of the Credit Union as defined by Rule 15, do not hold shares in the Credit Union and do not share in the risks and rewards of ownership.
11. Juvenile Depositors receive interest on their deposits at a rate as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.
12. Juvenile Depositors cannot apply for a loan, do not have a say in the running of the business and are not permitted to attend General Meetings.
13. On reaching 16, Juvenile Depositors may, if they satisfy the criteria of Membership, apply to become Members of the Credit Union.

Applications for membership

14. No applicant shall be admitted into membership of the Credit Union unless the applicant supports the objectives and social goals of the Credit Union, has paid such entrance fee as required, has completed an application for membership in a form accepted by the Board of Directors and the Board has approved the application using such procedures as agreed by them from time to time.
15. An applicant for membership of the Credit Union may be admitted to membership only when:
  - a. They fall within the common bond and as a result qualify for admission to membership;

- b. They have provided sufficient evidence to prove their identity (and proof of incorporation if a corporate body) and address, as required to comply with all relevant laws and Regulations established in respect of money laundering prevention; and
- c. They hold and have paid for at least a £1 Non-Deferred Share in the Credit Union

16. A Member of the Credit Union may hold more than one account in the Credit Union.

Register of Members

17. The Credit Union shall keep a register of Members containing the following details:
- a. The names and addresses of the members;
  - b. A statement of the number of shares held by each member and of the amount paid or agreed to be considered as paid on the shares of each member;
  - c. A statement of other property in the society, whether in loans, deposits or otherwise, held by each member;
  - d. The date at which each person was entered in the register as a member, and the date at which any person ceased to be a member;
  - e. The names and addresses of the Board of Directors (past and present) of the Credit Union, with the offices held by them respectively, and the dates on which they assumed, and vacated, said office.

The register shall be so constructed so that it is possible to inspect the particulars therein mentioned in paragraphs (a) (d) and (e) of rule 19 without exposing the other particulars entered therein.

Cessation of Membership

18. A Member shall cease to be such if:
- a. They cease to qualify for admission for membership as specified in rule 6 and subject to rule 9
  - b. They die, or if a body corporate, is wound up or goes into liquidation; or
  - c. They are a Member in the capacity of the Designated Representative of an unincorporated association or partnership (that is not a body corporate) which is wound up or goes into liquidation; or
  - d. They are a Member in the capacity of the Designated Representative of an unincorporated association or partnership (that is not a body corporate) which removes or replaces them as its Designated Representative, provided the following is adhered to:
    - 1. any loans held by the Member are repaid in full;
    - 2. any Non –Deferred Shares held by the Member are repaid in full by the Credit Union;
    - 3. any deferred shares are transferred to another member of the credit union in accordance with rule 44
  - e. If the partnership or unincorporated association wishes to appoint another Designated Representative then that representative should make an application for membership as per rules 16 and 17
  - f. They voluntarily withdraw from the Credit Union in accordance with these Rules; or
  - g. They are expelled by the Credit Union in accordance with these Rules. Where membership ceases, the Member's liability remains as per Rule 20.

Withdrawing from membership

19. A Member without any liability to the Credit Union may voluntarily withdraw from membership of the Credit Union at any time by applying for, and receiving, their shareholding in the Credit Union; subject to any notification period in place as agreed from time to time by the Board of Directors.
20. Members with an outstanding liability to the Credit Union shall be required to settle their account prior to being permitted to withdraw from membership of the Credit Union.
21. Those Members holding Deferred Shares shall not have the power to withdraw them. Repayment of any Deferred Shares shall be made in accordance with the issue documents, which comply with s31A CUA 1979,

Expulsion and Suspension from Membership

22. Subject to the receipt of notice of expulsion in accordance with these Rules, a Member or Juvenile Member may be suspended from participation in the Credit Union pending the completion of an investigation. The investigation may recommend the Member's subsequent expulsion from membership of the Credit Union by passing a resolution carried by a majority at a meeting of the Board of Directors.
23. A Member may be suspended, and subsequently expelled, from the Credit Union for any grave and sufficient reason including, but not limited to, the following:
  - a. Wilful breach of, or refusal to comply with, the Rules;
  - b. Divulging confidential information obtained by virtue of being a Member of the Credit Union;
  - c. Deceiving the Credit Union with regard to the purpose of money borrowed or its subsequent use;
  - d. Default and continued refusal to honour a debt (the loan repayment terms of which had been agreed in a signed loan agreement);
  - e. Maliciously and knowingly spreading incorrect reports about the management of the Credit Union;
  - f. Wilfully making any entry, error or erasure in, or omission from any system, record or return of the Credit Union with the intent to falsify it;
  - g. Actively working against the interests of the Credit Union and/or its membership;
  - h. Allowing their account to become dormant and failing to remedy the situation in accordance with rules 29 to 33;
  - i. Using the Credit Union as a vehicle for committing an offence under the Money Laundering Regulations 2017 and any subsequent legislation;
  - j. Committing an offence of dishonesty against the Credit Union, wilfully destroying or damaging records or other property of the Credit Union, or knowingly passing forged papers through the Credit Union;
  - k. If, after admission as a Member, or Juvenile Depositor of the Credit Union, their application form is found to include wilfully false or misleading information or any defect is discovered in their qualification for membership at the time of their admission which in the opinion of the Board of Directors is of such consequence as to justify expulsion;
  - l. Abusive behaviour towards the Board of Directors, employees or volunteers of the Credit Union.

Notice of expulsion

24. A notice of expulsion of a Member shall be sent by special delivery to the last known Address of the Member and shall contain a reference to the expulsion appeals procedure. The notice of expulsion of the Member shall not become effective until 30 days after the date of posting the notice of expulsion or until the result of any appeal, if any, whichever is the later.

Appeal against expulsion

25. A Member shall have 14 days from the receipt of a notice of expulsion to request an appeal against their expulsion. The Board of Directors shall, upon a request received in Writing from the Member on whom the notice of expulsion has been served, convene a special general meeting of the Members to consider the matter of their expulsion. The meeting shall be held not later than 60 days after the date on which the expulsion notice has been served on them. The Member shall have the right to be represented and heard at such special general meeting. The special general meeting shall have the power, by a majority decision of Members present, to confirm the Member's expulsion or to direct that they shall remain a Member of the Credit Union. The result of the appeal shall be final.

Liability of withdrawn and expelled Members

26. Withdrawal or expulsion of a Member from the Credit Union shall not relieve such Member from any liability which existed at the time of their withdrawal or expulsion.
27. The amount deposited by a Member who withdraws or is expelled shall be paid to them as funds become available, but only after all monies owed by them to the Credit Union have been deducted. Any amount due to a withdrawn or expelled Member shall be repaid within a period of less than 60 days beginning on the day following the expulsion or notice of withdrawal. No payment shall be paid to such a Member unless all of their liabilities to the Credit Union have been fully discharged.

Availability of Rules

28. A copy of these Rules and any amendments made to them shall be made available free of charge on demand to every Member of the Credit Union upon admission to membership and shall be provided to any other person on demand and upon payment of an amount no more than the specified amount chargeable in law for the time being in force.

Dormant accounts

29. If a period of 12 months passes without any transactions on the account of a Member (or on any of their accounts if they have more than one), or the Credit Union is unable to contact the Member, the Board of Directors shall have the discretion to declare that the account has become dormant. The Board may take account of any extenuating circumstances in making this declaration.
30. The Board of Directors shall have the discretion to charge an annual administration fee on each dormant account, an amount sufficient to cover the administration costs of membership specified by the Board of Directors from time to time and agreed by the Members at the annual general meeting
31. In relation to a Member who does comply with the minimum shareholding requirement as set out in rule 45, but whose account is dormant, the Credit Union may alert the Member to the dormancy by contacting the Member in Writing at their last known Address notifying the Member that there have been no transactions on their account (or their accounts if they have more than one) during the last 12 months, and providing the Member with a six week period to determine the future use of their account(s).

32. Any communication in Writing made under rule 31 shall contain:
  - a. Information on reactivating or closing their account and withdrawing from membership;
  - b. Information about the right of the Credit Union to charge an annual administration fee;
  - c. Reference to rule 33 which enables the Credit Union to remove dormant accounts into a suspense account and subsequently expel the Member from membership.

33. If the Member does not reactivate or close their account(s) within six weeks of the Credit Union issuing the communication, the Board of Directors shall have the discretion to:
  - a. Hold any monies within the account(s) of such Member in a suspense account pending the Member's subsequent withdrawal of their money, or activity on their account;
  - b. Charge the annual administration fee;
  - c. Expel the Member from membership of the Credit Union in accordance with rule 23.

SHARES

To summarise the business can have the following class of shares:

Deferred Shares

- deferred shares classify as capital
- these can be non-interest bearing, interest bearing and/or dividend bearing shares

Non-Deferred Shares

34. The credit union may offer Interest Bearing Non-Deferred Shares and Dividend Bearing Non-Deferred Shares. The nominal value of each Share shall be £1.00. A Member must purchase and hold at least one £1 Share in the Credit Union.
35. The Credit Union may issue Interest Bearing Shares if it meets the criteria for doing so as may be as may be prescribed by law, the Relevant Authority and these Rules. The nominal value of each Share shall be £1.00. A Member must purchase and hold at least one £1 Share in the Credit Union.
36. When a Member opens a share account the Credit Union must inform the Member whether said share account will qualify for interest or dividend as per the Rules. If a Member is informed that they hold Interest Bearing Shares they must also be informed that if the Credit Union ceases to meet the criteria set out by law or the Relevant Authority to pay interest on Shares their Interest Bearing Shares will be converted to Dividend Bearing Shares.
37. If a Member's Interest Bearing Shares are converted to Dividend Bearing Shares the Member must be informed using an agreed policy and procedure established by the Board of Directors.

38. Interest Bearing Shares shall not be eligible for a dividend and interest shall be set and credited using an agreed policy and procedure established by the Board of Directors.

Non-Deferred Shares

39. Non-Deferred Shares shall be withdrawable subject to the provisions of rules 49 to 50.
40. The Credit Union shall not issue to a Member a share certificate denoting ownership of a Non-Deferred Share.

Deferred Shares

41. Members of the Credit Union shall be eligible to purchase Deferred Shares which may be issued by the Credit Union under the terms and obligations as set out in an Issue Document(s). Upon purchase the Credit Union shall issue a share certificate denoting ownership of a Deferred Share(s).
42. For any Deferred Share(s) issued to a Member the Credit Union must transfer an equivalent amount (in whole pounds) to reserves.
43. Deferred Shares are non-withdrawable but are transferable and repayable only in the circumstances set out in the issue document. Deferred Shares shall only be transferred to another Member of the Credit Union using a procedure agreed by the Board of Directors.
44. Deferred Shares do not hold the right to any additional votes in the Credit Union and shall not count towards, or be subject to, the required minimum shareholding specified in rule 45 nor the maximum shareholding specified in rule 46.

Minimum Shareholding

45. The minimum shareholding (excluding Deferred Shares) required to remain in membership of the Credit Union shall be a sum of at least £1.00 as may be determined by the Board of Directors. Deferred Shares are not included in the minimum shareholding. The Board of Directors shall have the discretion to withdraw membership from any Member whose account has not been brought up to the minimum Non-Deferred Shareholding requirement within six months of admission to membership, or any Member whose account is reduced below the minimum Non-Deferred Shareholding, through adopting the following procedure:
  - a. Providing notice in Writing to their last known Address
  - b. The notice shall require the Member to increase their shareholding to the minimum required or withdraw their Non-Deferred Shares within 6 months of the date of the notice.
  - c. If the Member has not taken action under (b) above the balance of the account may be declared by the Board of Directors to be forfeited to the Credit Union and membership shall be withdrawn on the same date.

Maximum shareholding

46. No Member shall have, or claim an interest in, Non-Deferred Shares of the Credit Union, exceeding 1.5 per cent (or such other sum as may be permitted by the Relevant Authority), of the total Non-Deferred Shareholdings in the Credit Union, excluding corporate members.

47. Corporate Members in total shall not have, nor claim an interest in, fully paid up Non-Deferred Shares of the Credit Union exceeding 25 per cent (or such other amount as may be prescribed by law) of the total fully paid up Non-Deferred Shares of the Credit Union. If this percentage is exceeded the Board of Directors shall repay Non-Deferred Shares held by Corporate Members using an agreed policy until a point where the percentage is no longer exceeded.
48. For the purpose of rules 46 and 47 the total fully paid up Non-Deferred Shares in the Credit Union shall be taken to be the total fully paid up Non-Deferred Shares as shown in the most recent annual return to have been sent to the Relevant Authority.

Withdrawing Shares

49. Subject to rules 52 and 53, money paid in on Non-Deferred Shares, may be withdrawn by a Member on any day as provided for by the Board. However, if required, the Board may request up to sixty days' notice from a Member of their intention to withdraw their shareholding.
50. For loans taken out the terms of the loan may include provision as to whether, for the duration of the loan, the borrower is permitted to withdraw Non-Deferred Shares where their paid-up shareholding (excluding Deferred Shares) in the Credit Union is, or following the withdrawal would be, less than their total liability (including contingent liability) to the Credit Union, whether as a borrower, guarantor or otherwise. The Board of Directors shall have the power to vary the terms of the loan agreement with the agreement of the borrowing Member.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme

51. Members' Non-Deferred Shares, excluding corporates, and juvenile savers' deposits are protected by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, subject to the current terms of the Scheme that may be in existence up to the maximum amount of that scheme. Deferred Shares are not covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme

LOANS

Loans to Members

52. The Credit Union may make loans to Members eligible to receive them. No individual under 21 years shall be eligible to receive a loan from the Credit Union. A Member who holds Deferred Shares in the Credit Union may not borrow on the strength of that shareholding nor use Deferred Shares to guarantee the repayment of another Member's loan.
53. The Board of Directors shall determine from time to time the loan policy of the Credit Union which shall apply to all Members. The loan policy shall include:
  - a. The maximum loan amounts available to Members;
  - b. Any limits or requirements that may be attached to secured and unsecured loans; including loans secured on shares and loans with shares attached.
  - c. Under what circumstances shares will be attached to a loan;
  - d. The rate of interest charged on loans (not to exceed any maximum rate as may be prescribed by law);
  - e. The application procedure for loans.

54. The Credit Union shall not at any time make a loan to a Member if the making of such a loan would bring the total amount outstanding on loans to Members above such a limit as may be prescribed by law or rules established by the Relevant Authority.
55. The Credit Union shall not at any time make a loan to a Corporate Member, if the making of such a loan causes the total loans to Corporate Members be in excess of the board approved limit and in the absence of a board approved limit shall abide by a limit of 25% of the aggregate of the outstanding balances on all loans (or such other amount as prescribed by law).
56. Any person knowingly responsible for the issue of a loan to a person other than a Member of the Credit Union shall be jointly and severally liable with the borrower to the Credit Union in the amount of the loan and accrued interest.

Guarantors

57. A Member of the Credit Union can use their shareholdings (excluding Deferred Shares) to guarantee another Member's loan. Directors, Officers and employees of the Credit Union are prohibited from acting as a guarantor for a Member's loan under any circumstances.

Loans to Officers and employees of the Credit Union

58. Members of the Board of Directors, Officers, Approved Persons and employees of the Credit Union may, as a Member of the Credit Union, be granted a loan by the Credit Union subject to rule 59. Such a Member may not be involved in the decision on the granting of the loan and such a loan may not be approved solely by a loan officer of the Credit Union. The Board of Directors and the Internal Auditor shall be informed of the details of any such loan prior to approval.
59. A Credit Union must not make a loan to one of its Board members, Officers or Approved Persons on terms more favourable than those available to other Members of the Credit Union.
60. A Credit Union must not make a loan to a Relative of, or any person otherwise connected with, a member of the Board of Directors, an Officer, an Approved Person or employee of the Credit Union on terms more favourable than those available to other Members of the Credit Union.

Recovering loans from Members

61. The Board of Directors is responsible for ensuring that suitable policies and procedures are established to ensure the repayment of all debts due to the Credit Union. All sums due from any Member shall be recoverable from him or her, their executors or administrators, as a debt due to the Credit Union.
62. The Credit Union shall have a lien on any Shares of a Member for any debt due to it by a Member or for any debt which the Member has guaranteed, and may offset any sum standing to the Member's credit, including any Shares, interest rebate and dividends, in or towards, payment of such debt.

APPLICATION OF SURPLUS

Calculation of profit

63. In ascertaining the profit or loss resulting from the operation of the Credit Union during any year of account, all operating expenses in that year of account shall be taken into account (including payment of interest) and provision shall be made for depreciation of assets, for tax liabilities and for bad and doubtful debts.

Building institutional capital

64. The Credit Union shall, out of its surplus from each year, establish and maintain reserves in accordance with the prudential rules on capital adequacy established by the Relevant Authority. The Board, as prescribed by legislation, must ensure it maintains certain capital levels as determined by the relevant authority and linked to the size of the credit union. To that end where the payment of dividends, or interest on deferred shares were to reduce the capital ratio below regulatory minimum then the board has the right to waive said payments during the period. In subsequent periods the Credit Union may determine it appropriate to recompense deferred shareholders for interest foregone from future profits.

Distribution of profit / surplus

65. Following compliance with the capital adequacy requirements established by the Relevant Authority, the Credit Union may allocate any remaining surplus in the following manner:
- a. A voluntary transfer to develop further the institutional capital base of the Credit Union;
  - b. Subject to rule 46, in the payment to Members of dividends on the amount of their paid-up Dividend Bearing Shares;
  - c. Subject to rule 46, as a rebate of interest paid by or due from Members who have received loans from the Credit Union, such rebate being proportional to the interest paid by or due from such Members during that year of account; and
  - d. After clauses (a) to (c) above has been paid out, as a payment for social, cultural or charitable purposes.

Dividend on Shares

66. There shall be no maximum amount payable as dividend on Dividend Bearing Shares. If a surplus has been achieved, and dividends are payable, the Board of Directors shall recommend the rates of any dividend payments for agreement by the Members at the annual general meeting.
67. If a decision has been made to dissolve the Credit Union then the dividend payable on Dividend Bearing Shares shall not exceed 8% per annum or any other rate as may be specified by order made by the Treasury.
68. At each annual general meeting Members may be formally asked to delegate such powers to the Board of Directors as may be necessary to declare interim dividends and establish differentiated dividend rates subject to any rules made by the Relevant Authority. No dividend declared and authorised for payment by the Members at the annual general meeting shall exceed the rate recommended by the Board of Directors.

69. Any dividend shall be declared on all full Shares held during the preceding year of account or interim period. New Members joining the Credit Union shall be entitled to a proportional part of the dividend on any Shares held for less than the full year of account on every full month of membership, a portion of a month being disregarded for the purpose of entitlement to dividend. Dividends shall be paid to those in membership of the Credit Union on the date that the dividend is declared.

Rebate of interest on loans

70. Provided that a dividend on Shareholdings has been recommended by the Board of Directors in accordance with these Rules, a rebate of interest may be recommended by the Board of Directors for declaration by the Members at the annual general meeting. No rebate of interest declared and authorised for payment by the Members in General Meeting shall exceed the rate recommended by the Board of Directors. Entitlement to rebate of interest is on the same basis as entitlement to dividend.

Payment of dividends and interest rebates

71. Dividends on Dividend Bearing Shares and interest rebates due to any Member will be placed to the credit of their share balance, and shall be so placed in any case where there is any money due by them to the Credit Union whether as a borrower, guarantor or otherwise in excess of their shareholding in the Credit Union unless the application of such dividend and/or interest rebate would increase their shareholding in the Credit Union to an amount exceeding the maximum shareholding permitted by rule 46.

MEMBERS' MEETINGS

Attendance at Members' meetings

72. Meetings of the Credit Union shall be either an annual general meeting or a special general meeting. Every Member shall be entitled to attend such general meetings on the production of such evidence as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Annual General Meeting

73. The annual general meeting shall be held within six months of the end of the year of account at such date, time and place as the Board of Directors may determine by resolution.
74. The business of the annual general meeting shall comprise:
- a. The receipt of the accounts and balance sheet and of the reports of the Board of Directors and the auditor (if any);
  - b. The appointment of an auditor (subject to rule 128);
  - c. The election of the Board of Directors or the results of the election if held previously by ballot;
  - d. The application of surplus;
  - e. The transaction of any other business included in the notice convening the meeting.

Notification of Members' meetings

75. At least 14 days before the date of a general meeting, the Secretary shall cause notice to be made available of the date, time and place of the meeting to each Member. In addition to the above, the Board may also give notice of any meeting by posting notice in a conspicuous place in a place of business of the Credit Union to which Members have access, including any electronic correspondence or website operated by the Credit Union, at least 14 days prior to the meeting. Notice in Writing shall be sent to the auditor and to the Association.
76. A notice sent in Writing, not including by email, to a Member's Address shall be deemed to have been duly served forty eight hours after its posting. When notice of a general meeting has been given in accordance with these Rules the accidental omission to give notice to any Member or the non-receipt of the notice by any Member shall not invalidate any resolution passed or any business undertaken at the meeting.

Special general meetings called by the Credit Union

77. Any general meeting of the Credit Union other than an annual general meeting shall be a special general meeting. The Board of Directors of the Credit Union may for good reason convene a special general meeting for any purposes not specifically provided for elsewhere in these Rules.

Special general meeting at Members' request

78. Upon an application, signed by one tenth of the total number of Members, or 100 Members, whichever is the lesser number, delivered to the registered office of the Credit Union, the Board of Directors shall convene a special general meeting of Members. The purpose of the special general meeting shall be stated in the application and notice of the meeting. No business other than that stated in the notice of the meeting shall be conducted at the meeting.
79. If within one month from the date of the receipt of the application the Board of Directors has not convened a special general meeting to be held within 6 weeks of the application, any three Members of the Credit Union acting on behalf of the signatories to the application may convene a special general meeting, and shall be reimbursed by the Credit Union for any costs properly and reasonably incurred in convening such a meeting.
80. In order to ensure the continuation of the Credit Union, a special general meeting which results in the removal of one or more Board members from their position, will require any newly elected Officer to apply for, and obtain Approved Person status immediately following their election and before carrying out the function. A newly elected person refused Approved Person status by the Relevant Authority is required to resign their position immediately and shall no longer be permitted to take an active role in the management of the Credit Union.

Business at a special general meeting

81. A special general meeting shall not conduct any business other than that specified in the notice convening it. An annual general meeting may be made a special general meeting for any purpose of which due notice has been given, provided that such business is not brought on until the business of the annual general meeting is concluded.

Voting

82. Each Member of the Credit Union shall hold one vote only irrespective of the size of their Shareholding in the Credit Union or the number of accounts held. The right to vote by a Member shall be held by:
  - a. In the case of an individual Member; the individual
  - b. In the case of a partnership or an unincorporated association, the Designated Representative or partner
  - c. In the case of an incorporated body; the Corporate Representative
83. A Member of the Credit Union may vote by proxy at a general meeting of the Credit Union. Postal voting may be used, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, as part of the procedure for the nomination and election of the Board of Directors of the Credit Union.
84. Elections for the Board of Directors of the Credit Union shall be conducted by secret ballot. Except where otherwise specified in these Rules or law, all questions shall be resolved by a simple majority of votes cast.
85. A Member is able to exercise the right to speak and vote at a general meeting of the Credit Union and is deemed to be in attendance when they and all those attending the meeting are in a position to communicate with each other. The Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting of the Credit Union to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it including by electronic means. In determining attendance at a meeting of the Credit Union, it is immaterial whether any two or more Members attending are in the same place as each other.

Chairperson

86. Every general meeting shall have a chairperson, who shall not be entitled to vote unless the number of votes cast are equal, at which point he or she shall have a casting vote.
87. Quorum: No business shall be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present. A quorum shall be 10 per cent of the membership, or 15 Members, whichever is the lesser number. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting to commence a quorum is not present then the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case the meeting shall be adjourned until a later date within 30 days of the meeting at which the adjournment took place. The Members present at a meeting so adjourned shall constitute a quorum.

Adjournment

88. The chairperson may adjourn any Members' meeting for any good and sufficient reason.
89. The provisions relating to the conduct of general meetings of the Credit Union shall apply to adjourned meetings. No business shall be transacted at such a meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.

NOMINATING AND ELECTING OFFICERS

Nomination for election

90. Subject to rules 94 and 95 of these rules, the Board of Directors will accept nominations for election of Officers of the Credit union. All nominees for election as an Officer of the Credit Union must be Members of the Credit Union and must be at least 18 years of age and:
- a. In the case of an individual Member; be the individual
  - b. In the case of a partnership or an unincorporated association, be the Designated Representative or partner
  - c. In the case of an incorporated body; be the Corporate Representative
91. Nominations for the Board of Directors, shall be in Writing and shall be signed by a proposer and a seconder who must also be Members of the Credit Union and also by the nominee to indicate their consent, and their willingness to submit to any requirements of the Relevant Authority. Nominations shall be sent so as to ensure they reach the registered office of the Credit Union at least 14 days before the date of the annual general meeting where the election shall take place.
92. If, after all of the nominations have been received, there are outstanding vacancies, the chairperson of the meeting may call for further nominations from the floor. Such nominations, if duly seconded and if the nominee is present and provides their consent, shall be in order.

Board committees

93. The Board of Directors may appoint a nominating committee, remuneration committee, audit committee and risk committee each of not less than 3 Directors of the Credit Union.

The nominating committee shall ascertain the number of vacant Officer posts requiring candidates and ensure that there is at least one suitable candidate to recommend to the annual general meeting for each vacancy. In making their recommendation, the nominating committee shall ascertain that the nominee is 'fit and proper' to become an Approved Person acting in good faith. The nominating committee shall adhere to any policy established by the Board of Directors in relation to the suitability of candidates. The nominating committee shall also be responsible for identifying and recommending potential co-options to the Board of Directors to fill any vacancies. The Board may delegate powers to the nominating committee to manage applications for Approved Person status.

Election of Officers

94. All elections shall be conducted following such procedure as may be established by the Board of Directors from time to time.
95. If for any election the number of nominees does not exceed the number of vacancies to be filled, a proposal to dispense with the election procedure and to declare that all nominees are duly elected may be proposed to the annual general meeting. If such a proposal is carried by a majority vote of the Members present at the meeting, the chairperson shall declare that the nominees for that election are duly elected

Prohibition of certain persons as Officers

96. A person who knows of any substantive reason why he or she may not be regarded as 'fit and proper' to be authorised as an Approved Person by the Relevant Authority, or who is an undischarged bankrupt, or who is disqualified under the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986, or has been convicted on indictment of any offence involving fraud or dishonesty, shall not:
- a. Act as an Officer of the Credit Union; or
  - b. Directly or indirectly take part in or be concerned in the management of the Credit Union; or
  - c. Permit their name to be put forward for election or appointment to any office of the Credit Union.

When a person holding any office in the Credit Union becomes ineligible by virtue of this rule to hold that office, he or she shall immediately cease to hold office.

Terms of office

97. Each Non-Executive Director, Officer, will serve for a period of three years after which they will stand for re-election for a further three-year term. Where deemed appropriate an Officer may be re-elected for a third and final three-year term. An Officer will serve a maximum of 9 years in office.

Board of Directors

98. The Credit Union shall have a minimum of 5 Directors and a maximum of 9 as determined by the Members at the annual general meeting from time to time. Directors shall be elected at the annual general meeting in accordance with these Rules.
99. Designated Representatives or Corporate Representatives of Corporate Members may be elected as a Director. At no time will Corporate Members elected to the Board of Directors exceed two Directors declared by the members according to rule 106 of these rules.
100. The Board of Directors has the power, in advance of an election, to propose a recommendation on election of representatives at the annual general meeting to ensure that the Board consists of representatives of all areas, sections and diverse groups covered by the Credit Union.

Election of office holders

101. As soon as possible following the annual general meeting, the Board of Directors shall elect from among its number a chairperson, a treasurer of the Credit Union. The Board of Directors shall also elect a secretary as a servant of the Board, said appointee not necessarily being a Board member. A person so elected shall hold office until the election of their successor, or 9 years, whichever sooner. The chief executive officer is also a board member.

Casual vacancies

102. A casual vacancy on the Board of Directors shall, as soon as is practicable, be filled by a majority vote of the Directors then holding office. Such a co-opted Director shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term of that office.

Timing and notification of Board meetings

103. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at least monthly, or in accordance with other guidance given by the Relevant Authority. The date, time and place of such meetings shall be decided from time to time by the Board. All meetings shall be called in such a manner as the Board shall determine.
104. The Chair may call a special meeting of the Board of Directors at any time and shall additionally do so on receipt of a request in Writing signed by at least two Directors. The Chair shall determine the date, time and place of such a meeting, unless the Board of Directors prescribes otherwise by resolution.

Quorum

105. No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Board of Directors unless a quorum is present. A majority of the number of the Directors in office at any time shall constitute a quorum. If from the time appointed for the meeting to commence a quorum is not present then the meeting may be adjourned to any date not less than two nor more than seven days from the day of the meeting at which the adjournment took place. The quorum for such an adjourned meeting shall be three Directors or such greater number as the Board may determine by resolution.

Voting at Board meetings

106. Any questions arising at any meeting of the Board of Directors shall be decided by a majority of votes. Each Director shall have only one vote on any matter provided that the chairperson of the meeting shall have a casting vote in the event of an equality of votes.

Attendance at Board meetings

107. A Director is able to exercise the right to speak at a meeting of the Board of Directors and is deemed to be in attendance when that person and all those attending the meeting are in a position to communicate with each other. The Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a meeting of the Board of Directors to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it including by electronic means. In determining attendance at a meeting of the Board of Directors, it is immaterial whether any two or more Directors attending are in the same place as each other.

Chairing Board meetings

108. Subject to any specific provision contained in these Rules, the Chair shall preside at meetings of the Board of Directors. He or she shall perform such other additional duties as directed by the Board of Directors which are not inconsistent with the provisions of the law or of these Rules.
109. If the Chair is not present or willing to act within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the beginning of a Board meeting, the other voting Directors shall elect one of their number to be chairperson of that meeting.

Failure to attend meetings

110. Any Director who, without special leave of absence, fails to attend 3 meetings during the financial year of the Credit Union shall, if the Board of Directors so resolve, be deemed to have vacated their office, and the vacancy shall be filled as provided for in rule 90.

Delegation of powers

111. The authority of the Board of Directors resides within a meeting of the Board which has been properly called. Outside of a Board meeting Director(s) shall only have the specific authority to act in a specified area as may from time to time be delegated within a meeting of the Board of Directors. In addition, the Board of Directors may delegate any of their powers to committees established as provided for in these Rules. Committees shall consist of such members of the Board as determined from time to time by the Board and other individuals as the Board think appropriate. The committees shall have clear terms of reference agreed by the Board and conform in all respects to these terms, including any requirements regarding reporting to the Board of Directors. The key board committees are the Audit Committee, Risk Committee, Nominations Committee and Remuneration Committee.

Validity of actions

112. All acts carried out by any meeting of the Board, any committees or by any Director acting in pursuance of authority duly given by the Board shall be valid as if such Director, had been duly appointed or qualified however if afterwards the appropriateness of that Director acts comes under question the acts may be reviewed by the Board and if felt appropriate ratified by the Board. .

Responsibilities of Directors

113. Subject to the law and these Rules, the Board of Directors shall manage the general business and control the affairs of the Credit Union and shall be responsible for performing all of the duties ordinarily performed by the Board of Directors. The Board's responsibilities include but are not limited to the following:

- a. Ensuring that the Credit Union complies with all statutory and regulatory requirements attached to all regulatory permissions held by the Credit Union;

- f. By reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;
- g. They resign their office in Writing to the Secretary, subject to any notice period contained in their terms of engagement;
- h. They are deemed to have vacated their office in accordance with rule 110;
- i. They are removed by a resolution of a majority of the Members of the Credit Union present at a special general meeting called for that purpose by the Board of Directors or by the Members provided that such an Officer shall be given at least 14 days notice of the meeting and of the intention to remove him or her from office;
- j. They, or their spouse or partner, are engaged in a managerial capacity in the carrying on of any business, trade or undertaking which in the opinion of the Board competes in any way with any business, trade or undertaking carried on by the Credit Union;
- k. They, or their spouse or partner, are concerned in or participate in the profits of any contract made with the Credit Union except as a non-managerial member or employee of any society or company which contracts with or does work for the Credit Union.

Payment of expenses and fees

115. Non-Executive Members of the Board of Directors, may receive a fee as determined by the Board of Directors, for their services subject to a daily cap agreed, based on a market rate at the Annual General Meeting, or at an Extraordinary General Meeting, together with a reimbursement for reasonable out of pocket expenses. The market rate will be based on independent advice, received by the Board of Directors, from a suitably competent professional firm. This Rule does not prevent Directors being remunerated by a company that provides direct services to the Credit Union in accordance with Rule 129.

CREDIT COMMITTEE AND LOAN OFFICER

Roles and responsibilities

116. The Credit Union shall have a credit committee which shall remain in existence until a majority of the Members, at the annual general meeting, vote in favour of a proposal from the Board of Directors to disband it.
117. The Board of Directors shall set the terms of reference of the credit committee as well as the membership.
118. The credit committee shall be responsible for monitoring the Credit Union's loan business, loan assessment and making recommendations on policy changes to the loan and credit control policies for agreement by the Board. The credit committee, with the permission of the Board of Directors, shall have the power to delegate operational aspects of their work to one or more loan officer(s). Any delegation shall clearly outline the specific limits which the loans officer(s) can operate.

INTERNAL AUDIT

Roles and responsibilities

119. The Credit Union shall appoint an internal auditor. The Board of Directors and the internal auditor shall agree the Terms of Reference.
120. The internal auditor shall be notified of all meetings of the Credit Union and be entitled to attend such meetings, including meetings of the Board of Directors of the Credit Union, as necessary to undertake their audit work. The internal auditor shall report each year to the annual general meeting.
121. A schedule of reviews will be agreed and conducted throughout the year, the results of which will be presented to the board or an audit committee if in existence.

Removal from office

122. The board may remove the internal auditors if they deem the reviews and work to be sub-standard and seek to appoint new internal auditors to meet the needs of the union.

OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Conflict of interest

123. No Officer or employee of the Credit Union shall in their conduct of the Credit Union's business in any manner, directly or indirectly participate in the deliberation of or the determination of any question affecting their pecuniary interest or the pecuniary interest of any person or body (other than the Credit Union) in which he or she is directly interested. Such person(s) shall withdraw from the meeting and the remaining persons shall constitute a quorum while that matter is being discussed or determined should their withdrawal result in a quorum not being present. The Board, by a majority decision of its number, shall maintain the right to require such an individual to withdraw from the Board during the period the conflict of interest exists. The Board may co-opt another member to fill such vacancy.
124. Any Officer who declares an interest in becoming an employee of the Credit Union, or where a member of their immediate family applies for a position as an employee of the Credit Union, shall not take part in any discussion, selection or decision relating to that particular position in the Credit Union.

Confidentiality

125. An Officer or employee of the Credit Union shall not disclose to any person any information regarding any transaction of a Member of the Credit Union except in so far as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the business of the Credit Union, and in keeping with the Statements of Principle and Code of Practice for Approved Persons (APER). On appointment, all Officers and employees of the Credit Union shall sign a confidentiality agreement to ensure the confidentiality of all business conducted by the Credit Union as may be included in either employee or non-executive director contracts.
126. The Credit Union shall comply with the Data Protection Act 2018 concerning the protection of data.

Indemnity

127. Any Officer of the Credit Union shall be indemnified by the Credit Union against all reasonable costs, losses and expenses which such Officer may incur or become liable for by reason of any contract entered into or any act or thing done by him or her in discharging their duties as authorised by the Board of Directors, and the Board is empowered to pay the amount of such indemnity out of the funds of the Credit Union.

ACCOUNTS, AUDIT, ANNUAL RETURNS AND RULES

Appointment of auditor

128. A qualified auditor shall be appointed in each year of account to audit the Credit Union's accounts and balance sheet. In this rule 'qualified auditor' means a person who is a qualified auditor under section 7 of the Friendly and Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1968. The appointment of an auditor shall be ratified by a majority vote of the Members at an annual general meeting.
129. None of the following persons shall be appointed as an auditor of the Credit Union:
- a. An Officer or employee of the Credit Union;
  - b. A person who is the partner of, or in the employment of, or who employs, an Officer or employee of the Credit Union.

Availability of accounts

130. The Credit Union shall keep a copy of the latest balance sheet, together with the report of the auditor, displayed in a conspicuous place at the registered office. The Credit Union shall supply free of charge, to every Member or person interested in the funds of the Credit Union who applies for it, a copy of the latest audited accounts of the Credit Union.

Filing of accounts with the Relevant Authority

131. The Credit Union shall, within the time period allowed by the Relevant Authority, send to the Relevant Authority such returns as may be required, relating to its affairs during the year of account covered by the return. The annual return shall be accompanied by a copy of the audited accounts of the Credit Union for the year.

Auditor's entitlement to attend meetings

132. The auditor shall be entitled to attend any general meeting of the Credit Union, to receive all notices of the communications relating to any general meeting which any Member of the Credit Union is entitled to receive, and to be heard at any meeting which he or she attends on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns him or her as auditor.

MAINTENANCE OF MEMBERS' ACCOUNTS

Inspection of accounts

133. Any Member or person having an interest in the funds of the Credit Union may inspect their own account at all reasonable hours at the registered office or at any place where the same are kept, subject to such Regulations as to the time and manner of such inspection with regard to rule 19.

134. All books of account and other records of the Credit Union shall at all reasonable times be available for inspection by the auditor, the Board of Directors, internal auditor, or other persons duly authorised on their behalf.

Record of account

135. A statement of account shall be issued to each Member, at least annually, or upon their request.

Conducting transactions

136. Any person may pay money into a Member's account on account of Shares or a reduction of loan capital or interest outstanding. Only the Member themselves may enter into a loan agreement or make a withdrawal from their share account unless directed so under power of attorney. The Credit Union shall have the discretion to accept an authenticated request in Writing from an incapacitated Member permitting a named person to conduct transactions on the Member's behalf from a relevant authority. The Credit Union shall take all reasonable steps to assure itself of the validity of each request made in Writing and shall be indemnified by the Member in the event of a subsequent dispute.

Nominations

137. A Member may in accordance with the law nominate any person(s) to whom any of their property in the Credit Union at the time of their death shall be transferred (subject to the provisions of the law as to amount and the persons to whom a valid nomination may be made).
138. On receiving satisfactory proof of death of a Member who has made a nomination the Board shall, if and to the extent that the nomination is valid under the law, either transfer or pay in accordance with the law the full value of the property comprised in the nomination to the person entitled.

Claims on accounts of deceased, bankrupt or insolvent Member

139. Upon a claim being made by the personal representative of a deceased Member, or the trustee in bankruptcy of a bankrupt Member or the liquidator or administrator in the winding up of a Corporate Member to any property in the Credit Union belonging to the deceased, bankrupt or Corporate Member the Directors shall pay such property to which the personal representative, trustee liquidator or administrator has become entitled.

Incapacity

140. Subject to the provisions in the last sentence of this rule, where in the case of a Member or person claiming through such a Member, the Directors of the Credit Union are satisfied after considering appropriate medical evidence that such a Member or person is mentally incapable of managing their own affairs and are also satisfied that no person has been duly appointed to administer their property on their behalf and it is deemed just and expedient to do so by the Board of Directors, the Credit Union may pay the amount of any shares, loans and deposits belonging to such Member or person to any person who they judge proper to receive it on their behalf. This rule shall not apply where such a Member or person is a patient under the Mental Health 1983 and any subsequent amendments made under the Mental Health Act 2007 or under the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003.

AMENDMENTS TO RULES

Amendments to Rules

141. The Rules of the Credit Union may not be amended except by a resolution passed by not less than two thirds of the Members present and eligible to vote at a general meeting of the Credit Union. Notice of the proposed alteration must be given in Writing alongside the notice of the meeting.
142. Any Member of the Credit Union may, before the first day of October in any year, propose an amendment to the Rules by serving notice of the proposed amendment to the Board of Directors who must incorporate the proposed amendment in the agenda of the next general meeting of the Credit Union.
143. No amendment of Rules shall be valid until registered with the Relevant Authority. When submitting rule amendments for registration the chairperson may at their sole discretion accept any alterations required or suggested by the Relevant Authority without reference back to a further special general meeting of the Credit Union.

COMPLAINTS AND DISPUTES

Internal complaints procedure

144. A formal written complaints procedure shall be maintained by the Credit Union and made available to all Members and junior savers. The Credit Union shall aim to resolve a complaint and send a final response within eight weeks of the receipt of a complaint (or such other time period as may be prescribed by the Relevant Authority).
145. If a complainant remains dissatisfied at the completion of the Credit Union's internal complaints procedure, and from the date of receipt of the Credit Union's final response, the complainant shall have six months (or such other time period as may be prescribed by the Relevant Authority) within which to refer their complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service.
146. Complainants who remain dissatisfied following a formal decision by the Ombudsman may jointly agree with the Credit Union to refer their complaint or dispute to the County Court, or in Scotland the Sheriffs Court, who shall in accordance with section 83 of the Friendly Societies Act 1992, hear and determine such dispute. The County Court or Sheriffs Court shall have the power to order the expenses of the determining the dispute to be paid either out of the funds of the Credit Union or by such party to the dispute as it shall think fit, and such determination and order shall be binding and conclusive on all parties without appeal and shall not be removable into any court of law or restrained by injunction.

DISSOLUTION

147. The Credit Union may be dissolved:
  - a. On its being wound up in pursuance of an order or resolution made as is directed in regard to companies by the Insolvency Act 1986;
  - b. In accordance with sections 50(2) and 55(1)(b) of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965; by an instrument of dissolution to which not less than three fourths of the Members of the Credit Union have given their consent testified by their signatures; or which has been approved by a special resolution of the credit union and confirmed by the Relevant Authority.

Distribution of funds on dissolution

148. If on the dissolution of the Credit Union there remains after the payment of debts, repayment of Non-Deferred Share capital, discharge of all other liabilities and repayment of Deferred Shares any surplus assets whatsoever, such assets shall not be paid or distributed among the Members of the Credit Union but shall be:
- a. Transferred to another credit union;
  - b. If not so transferred, applied for charitable purposes as may be determined by the Members of the Credit Union in general meeting.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE ASSOCIATION OF BRITISH CREDIT UNIONS (ABCUL)

149. The Credit Union shall be and shall remain a member of the Association and shall, subject to law and these Rules, abide by the rules and by-laws of the Association as laid down from time to time for its Members.
150. The Association shall have the right to be represented, to speak and to be heard at any general meeting of the Credit Union.
